

The Ozark Conference Creed and Sportsmanship Standards will provide the foundation of appropriate and positive behavior for which Glendale High School will strive to obtain. These were developed through the collaboration of many people over the past year. Please read the following creed and standards, model those behaviors, and encourage and teach our young people to do the same. We value what athletics offers our students, and with our support and leadership, along with academic excellence, athletics can help them become productive and successful citizens. Thank you for your support and encouragement of our FALCONS!
